BODY OF JAMES CAIN ARRIVES AT OLD HOME

Back from the soil of France, where it had lain since the days of the world-war, the body of James Cain, Bourbon county boy, killed in action in one of the great battles in France, arrived in Paris, yesterday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, and was taken to the home of his father, John P. Cain. The body, accompanied by a guard of honor composed of two members of the regular army, was met at the Tenth street passenger station of the L. & N. by a picked detail from Bourbon Post of the American Legion, who acted as a personal escort to the home.

The funeral will be held at the Church of the Annunciation, in this city, at 2:30 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. Father William O'Hare. The burial will take place on the family lot in the Catholic Cemetery, where the fallen hero will be given a military burial with all the honors due a man who gave his life in the defense of liberty and freedom of the world.

HURT BY OWN ENGINE

Jas. McGarr, L. & N. engineer, who formerly made Paris his headquarters, was seriously hurt recently in an accident which occurred near Paris. Mr. McGarr had left his engine, and was examining the pipe leading from the sand box to the rails when the engine was started up in some unaccountable manner. Mr. McGarr was knocked down and seriously injured, but saved his life by rolling between the tracks. He was removed to his home at Rose-dale, near Covington. Mr. McGarr is well-known here and is very popular with the railroad men in this section.

NEW MANAGER

Mr. J. C. Bell, of New York, has taken charge as manager of The Kress Stores, in Paris, to succeed Mr. J. C. Jones, who retires on account of ill health.

Mr. Bell is a former newspaper man, having been engaged in the advertising game in New York and other cities in the East for many years. His father, Mr. J. W. Bell, was for many years a traveling salesman representing the Challenge Machinery Co., manufacturers of printing and paper cutting machines, and was well-known to all newspaper men and printers throughout Kentucky.

The greatest asset of all political parties is prejudice.

INTERESTING REVIVAL AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

The revival which began at the Methodist church Sunday under the auspices of Rev. Dr. C. C. Jarrell, of Augusta, Ga., and singing evangelist C. P. Gossett, of Wilmore, has continued with unabated interest through the week. Rev. Jarrell is an orator of great eloquence and power, and gives a message much out of the ordinary. He is ably assisted by Mr. Gossett, who has installed an augmented choir and trained chorus, making the song service one of great interest. Services are held twice a day, at 9:45 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m., except on Sunday, when the usual service will be held at 10:45. In a recent sermon Dr. Jarrell gave these brilliant sidelights:

"When preachers don't co-operate, hell holds a jubilee."

"You ask me if the world is worse than it has ever been, and I tell you yes, if it grows much worse it will rot and fall to pieces."

The following is a brief summary of Dr. Jarrell's sermon delivered Wednesday night:

"The South Wind Blew Softly." Acts 27:13.

"This is a marvelous chapter. It is the story of how the great preacher, Paul, reaches his cherished desire by a strange route. He is to set face toward Rome, being delivered with other prisoners into the hands of Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. Boating in contrary winds they come along the coast of Asia Minor to Mura. At this place the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy and the prisoners were placed aboard this ship. In sailing west against the winds they made slow headway. They sail under Crete, barely escaping its eastern cape, Salomone, and come to a place called Fair Heavens."

"At this place the preacher, Paul, advises that they remain here as it was too late to sail, for in so doing they might suffer not only the loss of the lading of the ship, but also their lives as well. The world advised differently. The others said this harbor is too narrow, let us make Phenice. The soldiers said, 'On to Rome!' The sailors said, 'There is not enough excitement here in this small place, let us move on to a larger place, so we may have the pleasure and excitement of the city life.' The Captain said, 'I must complete my voyage and prepare for another. I will be losing both time and money to remain at this place.' The owner of the cargo said, 'I must put my wheat on the market while the price is good.' The devil casts the deciding vote, and said, 'The South Wind Blows Softly, and it will be ideal sailing.' So the devil and the world out-votes the preacher, as they always do. The ship starts on its voyage."

"Let us hold council: The world says religion and the church is far too narrow. Political people say religion is too narrow for us. Business people say religion is too narrow. Social people say religion is too narrow. There are mothers in Paris who would rather see their daughters laid away in a coffin than have them spoken of as 'wall flowers.' The common people say there is not room enough in religion for us."

"The preacher says, Godliness is profitable for two worlds, for this world and the one to follow. Sin takes people to hell and takes hell to the people. The peril of this hour is that religion is the only hope in averting disaster and this can only be done by promoting a revival. You men in Paris get religion and this financial depression which is sweeping over this fair Blue Grass section will be lifted."

"The devil sends a nice wind. He always starts people to hell with a soft wind. The old ship makes it start and all is well for the South Wind Blew Softly. What a fool the old preacher was to advise us against making the voyage. Everybody is happy. Prosperity smiles. The preacher outwitted again, but wait!"

"On they sail, but not long after there arose a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. The small boat skipping on merrily behind is taken up and the old ship is undergirded. The Euroclydon strikes! They drive under a sea of clouds. The second day the ship is lightened of some of its burden. The third day the tackling is cast out. In the blinding storm the sailors cry out that they are nearing the quicksand and they seek to steer away. For ten days the awful agony is prolonged. There is no south wind with which they can land. The devil is jubilant! All on ship seek the council of the preacher. Yes, and you people in Paris will always seek the preacher when there is illness in your home or you suffer some great calamity. There are people in Paris that are dancing right over the pit of hell and the only thing that keeps them from falling in is the breath of life which is spared them by the Almighty God."

"The sequel to the moral south wind—prosperity, pleasure and worldiness. There are girls in this town who would be religious if it were not for their mothers. The mothers want their daughters

NEW POOL CONTRACTS READY

Would Pledge Crops of 1922 And For Four Succeeding Years to Burley Pool

EVERY GROWER SHOULD SIGN

New contracts pledging the tobacco crop of 1922 and the four years following to the co-operative marketing plan of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association have been printed and will go out to the county organizations of the association, Chief of the Field Service Division Joseph Passonneau said yesterday morning.

Colonel Passonneau also announced that eighty-eight contracts representing 239.25 acres of tobacco had been received by his office during the past week.

The new contracts contains the same provisions as to the handling of the tobacco by the association as are included in the old contract. The new members pay the same membership fee. The grower has the right to stop growing tobacco if he desires, but if he produces any it must be turned over to the association to be marketed.

The new blank contains spaces for the reporting of the amount of tobacco grown in 1921, the amount pledged for 1922, and if the grower, at the time of the contract, has any old tobacco on hand he delivers it to the association to be marketed.

Chief Passonneau said that every tobacco grower in the district would be given opportunity to sign up his 1922 tobacco, along with his production for the four succeeding years.

Chief Passonneau said that he had a report from Danville that a crop owned by McKinney Williams and Compton Brothers sold there the past week was divided, Williams selling his share over the loose leaf floor at $7.84 a hundred. Compton Brothers, whose share was pledged to the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, received on delivery of their crop an average of $8.89 a hundred.

Another report from Danville was to the effect that the independent house there sold 10,000 pounds Tuesday at prices ranging from 1 to 15 cents a pound.

KENTUCKIANS LOVE THE GOOD OLD STATE

A bulletin of the United States Census Bureau issued this week showed that out of a total population in 1920 of 2,416,630 persons, 2,134,989 were born in Kentucky and 30,906 were foreign born.

Next to Kentucky, Tennessee furnished the largest number of Kentuckians, with 71,535, or 3 per cent of the total. There were 40,225 Kentuckians who were born in Ohio; 31,918 born in Indiana; 20,444 born in Virginia; 11,975 born in Illinois and 10,453 born in West Virginia. No other States furnished as much as four-tenths of one per cent of the state's population.

Of the 2,416,630 inhabitants of Kentucky, 2,180,560 were whites, 235,938 were negroes, and the remaining 132 were Indians, Chinese, Japanese, and other non-whites.

to dance, play cards, be in society and win a rich husband and they are not particular about what price they pay to achieve their desires. Your sons gamble on races, and in the crap game, and you are horror-stricken. Don't blame your sons, you mothers are doing the same thing, in a little different way. If there is a chance of losing or winning, that is gambling. You women are a little nicer than the men, that is all. You sell tickets and buy the prizes and then play for the prize. Your homes are heading for the quicksands. Some day you will listen to the preacher and make him listen to your sorrows. The south wind blows softly at first, but it will land you into the pit of hell."

MATRIMONIAL

A Record of Dan Cupid's Doings As The Days Go By

RADER—BAXTER

—Edward Baxter, twenty-seven, of Richmond, and Miss Thelma Rader, twenty-seven, of London, Ky., were married in this city Tuesday at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church.

DORSEY—CARRICKER

—Rev. John A. Carricker, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Elizaville, and Miss Elizabeth Dorsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dorsey, of near Elizaville, were married in Louisville. They were accompanied to Louisville by Porter Williams, of Fleming county, and Miss McKinley, of Paris. The wedding was a surprise to most of their friends.

FARROW—MITCHELL

—Miss Mary Farrow and Charles Lee Mitchell, both of Paris, secured marriage license Tuesday and were married by County Judge George Batterton, in his private office in the court house.

The bride has been for several months employed as an operator in the Paris exchange of the Cumberland Telephone Co. In the past two years six young women operators in the Paris exchange have forsaken singleness and taken husbands "for better or for worse." Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will reside in Paris.

WILSON—HOLLENBACH

The lives of two well-known young people representing prominent Bourbon and Shelby county families, were united yesterday afternoon at the Sellbach Hotel, in Louisville, when Miss Anna Wilson, of Paris, and Mr. Charles Hollenbach, of Shelbyville, were married. The ceremony was performed by the rector of the Shelbyville Episcopal church.

The bride, a lovely young woman, was handsomely gowned in blue Paulette crepe with gown, cape and hat to match, and with a corsage bouquet of sweet violets. The ceremony was witnessed by a few intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hollenbach left for a brief wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Shelbyville, where the bridegroom has business interests. Mr. Hollenbach recently completed a handsome home in Shelbyville, which he and his fair bride will occupy.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. James B. Wilson, of Cincinnati, formerly of Paris, and a granddaughter of Dr. J. A. Wilson, of Paris. She is a very attractive young woman, with a host of friends in the Blue Grass region, who are extending their sincere congratulations and good wishes.

BOARDMAN—HOPKINS

—Miss Sue Boardman, senior student at the University of Kentucky, and Mr. Richard Hopkins, a former student, both of Little Rock, Bourbon county, were married Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Dr. A. W. Fortune, the officiating minister, in Elsmere Park, Lexington. The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip in the South. On their return they will live on the farm of the bridegroom in Bourbon county.

Attendants at the wedding were Misses Dorothy Blatz, Louisville, and Roxanne Trimble, Russellville, Mr. Newton Malloy, Murphreesboro, Tenn., Mr. Raymond Kirk, Lexington. The bride is a member of Alpha Xi Delta fraternity of the University and her bridesmaids were her fraternity sisters. Mr. Hopkins is a Kappa Sigma.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Boardman, of Little Rock. She has been prominent in many student activities during her four years at the University. Mr. Hopkins and his bride have been lifelong friends and sweethearts.

The bride wore a blue traveling costume, with henna hat. Her corsage bouquet was of violets and lilies of the valley.

VETERANS GO TO FRANKFORT

Several members of Bourbon Post, American Legion, went to Frankfort yesterday to be present when the State bonus bill came up. Many of the former service men are opposed to the bonus, while the greater majority are in favor of it. The Bourbon county men were interested spectators and watched the proceedings in the law-making industry with a great deal of concern. They returned last night, in company with the Lexington delegation.

BASE BALL PLANS MEET WITH ENTHUSIASM

At a meeting of promoters of the Blue Grass League, held at the Phoenix Hotel, in Lexington, Friday night final steps were taken toward perfecting the organization. While two of the towns in the League failed to send representatives to the meeting assurance was given that they would put teams in the field and would line up with the leaguers.

It was announced that Cynthiana fans had already raised the sum of $2,000 toward financing the team for that city. The stock was put on sale last week in blocks of five shares for fifty dollars, and no one was permitted to buy more than one block. In Paris the necessary funds have been secured or pledged for maintenance of the club, and the same is true in Lexington. Richmond's merchants will uniform and finance their club, it was announced.

George D. Speakes, of Paris, sounded one of the subsidiary purposes of the League when he said: "It will be a typical baseball farm. When one of our players shows real class on this circuit we will not attempt to keep him down, but will send him to a league of higher rating. All the boys of Central Kentucky will have an opportunity of breaking into the big show through the Blue Grass League." The Paris representatives announced that they were already signing up players for the coming season and expected to have at least thirty-five candidates trying out for the team.

Capt. William Neal, secretary-treasurer of the Louisville ball club, will be invited to attend one of the meetings in the near future and explain the rules of the National Base Ball Association to the managers. The next conference of the league organizers will be held in the court house in Paris on Thursday night. Towns interested in placing teams in the league are requested to send representatives to the Paris meeting.

In anticipation of the reorganization of the League, James Daugherty, owner of the ball park which was the home of the old Blue Grass League team, will begin as soon as the weather permits, to restore the grounds to their former condition. The grandstand will be repaired, bleacher seats erected and the grounds leveled and put in first class shape for the season. Everything points to a resumption of the former interest in baseball in Paris, when this was considered one of the best base ball towns in Central Kentucky.

BASKET BALL NOTES

The Paris High School basket ball team go north to-day to take a second try at the Covington and Dayton quintests. This will be the fourth journey out of town. Those who saw the Covington and Dayton games that were played at Paris know that the visitors won both these games by a small margin over the Paris boys, and with Tucker doing his good work on the local quintet the P. H. S. boys are going to avenge the recent defeats handed them.

The Paris boys will be gone about three days. They play at Covington, Friday, February 24, and on the following day they play Dayton. We must all remember that the Dayton clan did not take all the spoils, the P. H. S. girls defeated the visitors by a score of 23 to 6. The girls are going to repeat the performance, according to the idea of Captain Wallingford, of the girls' team.

The basket ball team of the Cynthiana Christian church defeated the Paris Y. M. C. A. team in a game at Cynthiana by the score of 37 to 17.

The Paris High School and Somerset High School teams will meet on the local floors in a game to-night. The Somerset team defeated Paris in their last set-to by a score of 23 to 6. With Tucker in good form Paris expects to trim the Somerset lads to-night.

TELLS "THE TRUTH ABOUT GALILEO"

Taking for his theme, "The Truth About Galileo," Rev. William O'Hare of Paris, delivered a most entertaining and instructive address to the Lexington Knights of Columbus at their hall Monday night. Father Judermann, of Nicholasville, also made a short talk. Father O'Hare told of the theory of the great Italian astronomer, that the earth is round and revolves around the sun like other planets in the solar system, and how he was persecuted by the people of his day for teaching what was termed "heresy" by those who differed from him.

EDITORIAL FLINGS

A sunny day in winter time
I heard a little wren twitter
I ought to fling a stone at him
The optimistic critter!

Here's what they work at every day,
These pencil-slinging hams
Who dash off in their own small way
These things "called" epigrams."

Pretty Paris girls of the adolescent stage, who would want to kill themselves because "nobody cares for them" ought to form the acquaintance of a good cow. There's nothing like fresh, rich milk to tide a girl over this dangerous period.

Engineers have already picked twenty-one serious flaws in the faulty construction of the wrecked Knickerbocker Theatre at Washington, D. C., "otherwise the building was all right." Some consolation to the survivors.

There is a great deal of iron in raisins. Is that why you feel as if you had swallowed ten pounds of horseshoe slugs with some of the shaving the morning after your best friend has treated you, proudly, to a little of his home brew?

Many of our acquaintances do not even know who their great-grandfathers were. Why then should these fellows be disturbed about who their ancestors were 6,000,000 years ago? It is our advice to turn your face to the future, and be more concerned about where you are going to land.

You may have many years of grace before your steps begin to lag. But when old age creeps on apace, your trousers will begin to bag. But don't get peevish or vexed or sore; Endure as meekly as you can, The greeting of the friendly bore—"You sure are sliding fast, old man."

The fears expressed by some that the moon might drop out of her orbit is scouted by prominent astronomers. Here in the city of Paris, Ky., we have the reassuring fact that moonshine is now so popular that a syndicate would probably be formed to hold Luna in place if she showed signs of toppling over.

The Day's Thought
Of all the business sins of which a man may be guilty, disloyalty comes over the peak. You work for a man, or a firm, and you receive a certain wage or compensation for it. This does not give them absolute possession of your mind, body and soul, but it does demand your mental and physical effort.

He had been vainly trying to keep up interest in the movie picture being shown at the Paris Grand Wednesday night, but was having a hard time of it. Behind him sat a row of giggling, gossiping, popcorn-munching women, whose inane talk almost drove him to despair. Finally, in desperation, he leaned over to his neighbor, and remarked in a voice loud enough to be heard several rows down: "By golly, if good old St. Peter was living he certainly would say: 'Let your women keep silent in public places." The chatter stopped at once.

Fashion writers say the conservatives had as well be prepared for the girl in knickerbockers. What do you mean "prepared"? Didn't the most conservative see the girl without her knickerbockers at every bathing place last summer?

Pink "nighties" are figuring in the latest scandal in Hollywood's motion picture colony. Color schemes in that distempered community are carried out with artistic fidelity—rouge—the hectic life and the "blood red rose of lust."

This is an ungrateful world, surely! As soon as a man dies his relatives all rush to the local papers and want published a two-hundred word card of thanks!

The Legislature has been in session more than a month. The session is more than half spent, and nothing has been done so far to relieve the taxpayers. Appropriations, bond issues and spending money have been about the only things discussed. If matters go on in this manner it will be easy sledding to make the taxpayers believe the world is flat, and that they originated from monkeys.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

Two young white men, giving several names, and having in their possession a number of checks with names of farmers of the county signed to them, were arrested by Patrolman Lusk, after they had attempted to get one of the checks cashed at a local store. They are being held for investigation. The men, who claimed Estill county as their home, were arrested as they were boarding an L. & N. train at the Tenth street passenger station.

In the County Court, French French, alias "Sook" Clay, arrested by Patrolmen Lusk and Turner on a charge of unlawfully selling a half-pint of whisky to George Thomas, colored, was given a hearing before Judge George Batterton, and held to the grand jury in the sum of $500. Clay was placed under arrest by the officers in the yard in the rear of James Connelly's pool room, on Main street.

John Jones, a colored preacher, who was indicted by a recent Bourbon county grand jury on a charge of stealing a turkey belonging to Rev. J. T. Sharrard, and who had been a fugitive from justice, was arrested by Sheriff M. Peale Collier and Deputy Sheriff James Gibson, and was released on bond.

In the County Court, Lizzie Brooks, colored, was appointed administrator of the estate of her husband, Hal Brooks, colored grocer, who died a few days ago. She qualified for the trust by furnishing bond in the sum of $250, with H. A. Power as surety.

TOBACCO IS MOVING

To get some conception of what the Burley co-operative marketing corporation means to Kentucky, get in your car and take a ride through the Bluegrass region. The most notable thing on the road is the big truck with its load of tobacco under the tarpaulin. Multiply this by thousands and then the idea will come that Kentucky is by way of receiving a rich return for organizing in behalf of a great money crop.

The burley crop is not confined to the Bluegrass, but this region is suggested for observation because its roads are in fairly good condition. The tobacco movement could be seen in other districts, but the problem would be to find a good road to reach the scene.

Tobacco hauling is a problem in many counties. The winter season makes miry ditches where highways are supposed to be.

The big truck, rumbling along over a good road, carrying its farm product to be marketed under modern conditions presents a picture of Kentucky abreast with the spirit of the age of efficiency and enlightenment.

The four-mule team, dragging a little wagon with its small load of tobacco up unreasonably steep hills and through senselessly deep mud to a co-operative market has one point of encouragement. It is a picture of Kentucky struggling to take its place in the forefront of progress.

A good market demands good transportation facilities. This means good highways. When Kentucky has broken out of the mire entirely and put her wheels on metal surfaced roads, progress will be guaranteed in every line of endeavor. Business development will bring clearer conception of what good schools and good government mean to a people.

Tobacco is moving; so is Kentucky. The roads are not all good, but they are improving and all lead to the goal of great achievement.

The Usual Conclusion.

"Well, my dear," said the fond parent to his wife, "I haven't learned whether our boy will achieve success in the Marine corps, or not. But one thing I am sure of. If he makes good, it will be because he had such excellent home training, and if he goes wrong, it will be the fault of the service.—The Leatherneck.

Public Opinion.

Public opinion is often wrong in the beginning; it is always right in the end. And the reason is that, at first, it is formed by the passions of the unthinking many, ignorant of mankind, but interested in passing events; at last, on the reason of the thinking few, whose judgment had been enlightened by experience, to whom alone the past is an object of interest, and by whom the verdict of posterity is formed.—Alison.

FINE BOURBON LAND AT AUCTION

Saturday, February 18th, at 10 A. M.—On the Premises

Scale 500 Feet to the Inch.

245.08 Acres on Cane Ridge--Estate of Miss Sallie J. Rogers
10 Miles East of Paris—1 Mile West of Little Rock—4 Miles N. E. of N. Middletown

These splendid farms lie in the very richest section of Bourbon county. They are all in blue grass, with the exception of 10 acres on tract No. 4. A considerable amount of this land is virgin soil; very little of it has been plowed in many years and it has been well taken care of. It is in the heart of the best burley tobacco growing land in the Blue Grass Region. Each tract fronts on the turnpike and is well watered. Considerable young walnut, sugar tree, oak and ash timber. In graded school district, close to churches at Cane Ridge, Little Rock and North Middletown. Splendid opportunity to buy a small farm productive enough to pay for itself in a few years, and establish a home in one of the best neighborhoods in the Blue Grass.

Each tract will be sold separately and then the tracts lying on each side of the pike as a whole.

TRACT NO. 1—Contains 82.08 acres and adjoins the farm of Warren M. Rogers. Has a three-room tenant house. There is considerable virgin soil on this tract, which is well timbered. Watered by pond and spring; fronts on Stone turnpike. All in blue grass.

TRACT NO. 2—Contains 61.11 acres. Adjoins farm of Elmer Boardman and Jas. Duncan. Some virgin soil, small pond. Good timber on this tract. Fronts on turnpike. All in blue grass.

TRACT NO. 3—Contains 50.86 acres. Adjoins farms of Dr. Henry and Tom Reid. There is land on this tract that has never been plowed.

ed. Watered by branch. Fronts on pike. Good timber. All in blue grass.

TRACT NO. 4—Contains 51.03 acres. Adjoins Flanders farm and farm of Mrs. Robbins. All in blue grass with exception of 10 acres. Blue grass land on this tract has not been plowed in some 50 years. Watered by branch. Fronts on pike.

Sale will be held on premises, rain or shine.

There will be a fire in the house located on TRACT NO. 1 on day of sale. Terms announced on day of sale.

Prospective buyers may call John W. Jones, at North Middletown, Cumberland Phone 21 during the day, or 66 at night, who will be glad to show them over the farm.

Greatly Heartened and Encouraged
 By Advances, They Continue
 Delivery of Tobacco

STATEMENT FROM MR. STONE

Greatly heartened and encouraged by the advances made to growers throughout the Burley district by the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, members of that organization are completing the delivery of their crops to the receiving plants of the association. No estimate was obtainable as to the amount of tobacco delivered since the warehouses opened, nor was it possible to learn what amount of money had been advanced to the growers.

The chief development of the week, however, was the circulation of reports that a large amount of the association tobacco had been sold to one of the large manufacturers. Discussing that report President James C. Stone, of the association, said he could not say what amount of tobacco had been sold nor give the names of the buyers, but that several sales had been made and that others would be made.

"That's what this association was organized for," said Mr. Stone, "to sell tobacco, and we're selling it, and are going to sell more of it. The prices we have received for what has been sold have been entirely satisfactory to the growers who are members of the association."

One of the most remarkable features connected with the opening of our floors to receive the association tobacco has been the fact that in almost every instance the amount paid our members as an advance has been higher than the entire crop brought last year, and that in many instances the advance paid to our members for a half crop pledged to the association has been as much or nearly as much as the other half, not pledged, sold for on the independent loose leaf floors.

"The members of the association are sitting steady in the boat and they are happy and contented with the present situation and without fear as to the future. I agree with Ralph Barker in his statement that the growers will never go back to the old system of marketing."

"Landlords, members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, should make their contracts with tenants for 1922 and succeeding years so as to leave no doubt about their right to control all tobacco produced on their lands and should refuse to rent to tenants who are not members of the associations," said Joseph Passonneau, chief of the Field Service Division.

It was reported, though not confirmed, that Leggett & Myers had purchased from the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association about twenty-two million pounds of the pooled crop at twenty-five cents a pound.

No statement could be secured from the Liggett & Myers Company nor the Burley Association relative to the amount or price, but Ralph M. Barker, director of warehouses for the association, said that a considerable amount had been bought for a figure which was very satisfactory.

It was said that the outlook is bright for other big sales in the immediate future. Most of the nearly two millions pounds in the pool is expected to be sold soon, and all the holdings without much delay.

There are still a few good old-fashioned women who dislike to see their names in the papers.

When daughter eats onions for supper it is a sign that she is not expecting company that night.

A SWEET LITTLE BABY BOY

Makes a Bright Spot in Every Home. A Comfort in Years to Come

Park Rapids, Minnesota.—"I have taken your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—when I was a girl for pains and before and after my marriage. I now have a sweet little baby boy and will send you his picture if you wish to publish it. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help, and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born."

Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

To marry and arrive at middle age without children is a great disappointment to many women. Think of the joy and comfort other women have in their children as they grow older.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped to bring great happiness to many families by restoring women to health. Often the childless home is due to a run down condition of the wife, which may be helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It brought health and happiness into the home of Mrs. Johnson. Why not to yours?

There has been a seasonal demand for fresh eggs and while receipts are increasing, prices have ruled fairly steady during the week. As production increases, prices may be expected to work lower.

The market for live and dressed poultry has shown little change during the week, although there has been a full supply available.

The marketing of fowl will probably not continue on such a large scale during the next few months, as producers will no doubt be inclined to hold them back for egg production.

POULTRY AND EGG MARKET

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and achy backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor. Read this statement:

Mrs. John Mastin, 1439 High street, Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with very good results, for while I have never had any serious kidney trouble, I can tell by the help they gave me that they would be beneficial for kidney trouble. I had a dull aching across the small of my back and my kidneys acted irregularly. The use of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of those complaints, and I have faith enough in them that should I ever need a kidney remedy I would certainly use Doan's Kidney Pills."

Mrs. Mastin gave the above statement November 9, 1916, and on November 13, 1920, she added: "I still have the same good opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I endorsed them before and I use them occasionally when I require a kidney tonic. They never fail to do me good and I am always telling my friends of the merits of Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mastin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

RELIGIOUS

A Resume of Events in Religious Circles For Present and Future

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet Sunday evening at 6:30. The subject will be: "The Source of Happiness." Leader, Ferdinand Nagle. A special feature of the program will be short talks by several of the business men of the city. Everyone is invited.

"The world is fast becoming a vanity fair of shams, shows and shames. The Sunday Schools are filled with Bible pictures and your streets are lined with bill-boards of lewd pictures."

"When Protestant churches stand together the world will take notice." "We make our choices first and then our choices make us."

A genuine revival of religion is in progress at the Methodist Church and those are not attending are missing a great opportunity. Preaching of the old time Gospel every day at 9:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by Dr. C. C. Jarrell. Dr. Jarrell is moving his audiences in power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit and God is honoring his word.

Mr. C. P. Gossett, the noted song evangelist, is rendering a great service in directing the singing. Several new voices have been added to the already large choir and the orchestra is lending much to the excellent musical program.

Come tonight and bring your friends and attend this great revival meeting.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

—Preaching Sunday morning and evening at the regular hours. The service Sunday morning will be a children's sermon. At the last children's service the subject of the sermon was "The Sermon In A Show." This time the subject will be "The Sermon In Colors." Miss Frankie Butler, of the Chemistry Department of the Paris High School, is preparing the "sermon material" in her laboratory for the pastor. All the children of the Sunday School are requested to remain for this service. The subject of the Sunday night sermon will be: "A Fool Success Made." This is the second sermon on Old Testament characters being given at this church at the night services. Hours of service: Sunday School, 9:30 a. m., Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m., preaching 10:55 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Everybody welcome.

The Young Men's Bible Class meets in the balcony of the church at 9:45 a. m. The first chapter of Genesis will be the basis of the study Sunday morning. "Creation" will be the subject. In view of the current discussion of evolution these studies in Genesis should be very interesting.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

Morning services at 10:45 and evening service at 7 o'clock. In the morning Rev. W. E. Ellis' subject will be, "Man or Brute—Which?" and in the evening, "The Children of the Market Place." The public is cordially invited to attend all services and strangers in the city are urged to come. You are not only assured of a hearty welcome, but also two fine, helpful, gospel sermons.

Sunday School will meet promptly at 9:30 a. m. The Women's, Men's and Young Men's classes all have excellent teachers, and the lessons are most interesting. Bible school attendance last Sunday was 433. The Woman's class had 46 in attendance, the Men 46, and the Young Men's 47. Come out Sunday, and try one of these classes! You will enjoy the experience.

Christian Endeavor will meet in the church parlors promptly at six o'clock. The topic will be "The Source of Happiness" and the leader Miss Calysie Swinford. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Mission Band will meet in the church parlors Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The State Convention has been invited to meet in Paris, September 23, 24 and 25, and it is thought the invitation will be accepted. There are usually about three or four hundred in attendance at the State Convention.

Prayer meeting as usual Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. You are cordially invited to be one at these very helpful services.

The Woman's Society of the Church is conducting a day nursery at the morning church services, and all mothers with small children are cordially extended the courtesies of this department in taking care of their children while they attend the morning worship. The little ones will be in competent hands, so do not hesitate to bring them and leave them in the church parlors where the nursery will be established.

ROGERS SALE

On Saturday, February 18, at ten o'clock, a. m., auctioneer George D. Speakes will conduct the public sale, on the premises, of the 245-acre farm belonging to the estate of Miss Sallie Rogers. There's no finer farming land anywhere. Read the big ad in this issue of THE NEWS.

THE INFLUENZA SITUATION

With regard to the prevalence of influenza and gripe in this city the local physicians state that there have been only a few cases developing into pneumonia, and that they have the situation well in hand, the disease has been here in a very mild form only, and so far there have been no serious results. The physicians say the situation here is by no means alarming, and that by the exercise of a reasonable degree of caution and care people may avoid the disease. The changeable weather is said by the physicians to be responsible in a large measure for the prevalence of the disease. For this reason persons should take good care to avoid exposure and be on guard against their sneezing, coughing, expectorating neighbors.

Mr. Albert Plummer, of the county, continues very ill. Mrs. Will Allison is also very ill at the hospital. Little Clarence Shepard, a bright little nine-year-old lad, operated on Saturday night for appendicitis, and who was in a very serious condition for some time, is improving slowly.
The patients in the institution are being given every possible care and attention, and none is slighted in the least degree, so that some have expressed the opinion that they would rather be in the Massie Memorial Hospital than in many other places they might name. Which the Hospital people take as a sincere compliment.

EDITOR STEARS DENIES EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE

James B. Stears, of Nicholasville, former postmaster, former editor and one of the best known men in Central Kentucky, who is under bond to appear before the U. S. grand jury in connection with an alleged shortage of government funds at the Nicholasville postoffice, yesterday denied in most emphatic terms that he is guilty of any irregularities. Mr. Stears made the following statement:

"I do not owe the government one nickel. This discrepancy was all made up. Whenever the postoffice examiner of inspector either checked out of the office and there was a discrepancy it was made good immediately. There is no discrepancy now. I have receipts in full from the government up until January 15, when I relinquished the office."

HONOR ROLL PARIS SCHOOLS

The patrons of the Paris City School will be interested to note the splendid grades of the pupils for the first month of the New Year. At the special request of Superintendent Lee Kirkpatrick, parents have been urged to visit the school from time to time, to keep in touch with the progress their children are making. The teachers are encouraged to believe that greater interest is being manifested by both parent and pupil, and with the increase in the percentage of attendance, during the first semester, the outlook for the Second Semester is the brightest in the history of the school.

If you would raise the standard of your school to an even higher plane, stand by the teachers, keep in touch with your children's daily lessons—in other words—keep boosting.

DYE OLD CURTAINS,
SWEATER OR SKIRT
IN DIAMOND DYES

"Diamond Dyes" add years of wear to worn, faded skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, hangings, draperies, everything. Every package contains directions so simple any woman can put new, rich, fadeless colors into her worn garments or draperies even if she has never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods. (adv)

To Mend Enamel.

Take equal parts of fine coal dust, fine salt and putty. Knead well together and pack into the hole firmly. Put water into the mended article and stand on a warm stove for an hour. Wipe carefully and leave for a day before using. The mixture will form a cement as hard as the enamel, says a correspondent.

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOW-
ELS WITH CALIFORNIA
FIG SYRUP

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. (F-tf)

Alexander and the Knot.
Gordius, a peasant, being chosen king of Phrygia, dedicated his wagon to Jupiter and fastened the yoke to a beam with a knot that no one could untie. Alexander the Great was told that "whoever undid the knot would reign over the whole East." "Well then," said the conqueror, "it is thus I perform the task." And so saying he cut the knot in twain with his sword. This was in 330 B. C. A Gordian knot means in common use a great difficulty.

Real Service

"Whoever could make two ears of corn or two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, would deserve better of mankind and do more essential service to his country than the whole race of politicians put together."—Swift.

It is the old story—the man who can make with the same energy, in the same length of time, two blades of grass grow where one grew before, has a greater value to society.

The same is true of the man who sells. The man who can sell one hundred pairs of shoes in a day is one hundred times more valuable than the man who can sell only one pair of shoes in a day.

In a PIGGLY WIGGLY store one hundred people can help themselves in the same time that it would take to wait on ten people in any other store.

The PIGGLY WIGGLY system saves not only time, but it saves money, energy and health.

Death in a Rose.

A native of Lancashire, England, a member of a firm of cotton manufacturers, died recently, from the effects of a prick by a rose thorn. One day he pricked his hand when in his garden. Next day he complained of pain, but an examination revealed nothing. Later his hand swelled and a doctor told him he was suffering from septic poisoning. This caused his death.

Men talk about equality, but most of them are trying to get ahead of the other fellow.

First Tea Advertisement.
The first advertisement of a certain everyday article which ever appeared in the English Press was published in the Mercurius Politicus on September 30th, 1658. It read:—"That excellent and by all Physicians approved China drink called by the Chinese Tea, by other Nations Tay alias Tee, is sold at the Sultaness Head Cophee House in Sweetings Rents, by the Royal Exchange, London." This advertisement proves, by its mention of "cophee house," that the sister stimulant had got a start of tea as a beverage.

STATE INCREASE TOPS COUNTY

Report To Be Filed Soon With General Assembly By Tax Commission

1917 - 1921 FIGURES GIVEN

The increase in taxes collected in 1921 over those collected in 1917 for State purposes was slightly more than one-third as much as the increase in taxes paid for county purposes for the same periods, according to a tabulation prepared for the General Assembly by State Tax Commission, which will be presented to members of that body.

The State taxes collected in 1921 were $7,776,231.45, as compared with $5,070,878 in 1917, an increase of $2,695,353.51, of 53.1 per cent, while the taxes paid for county purposes collected in 1921 were $14,850,859, as compared with $6,124,924.77 in 1917, an increase of $8,725,934.23, or 142.4 per cent.

The total State and county taxes collected in 1921 were $22,617,090.71, as compared with $11,209,636.38 in 1917, a combined increase of 101.7 for both purposes. The counties received $7,084,627.77 more in taxes for county purposes during 1921 than did the State, according to the tabulation.

The State tax rate, under the tax commission law was fixed at 40 cents for all kinds of property except livestock and bank deposits, which pay a rate of 10 cents. The 1917 State rate was 55 cents for all classes of property. The county rates in most instances, according to the tabulation, show increases ranging from 7 to 60 cents on the $100 valuation, the most of the increases ranging from 20 to 40 cents on the $100. In Allen, Muhlenburg, Nicholas and Robertson counties the rate has been lowered since 1917, while Estill and Fleming counties had the same rate in 1921 that they had in 1917.

The total assessed valuation of property for State taxation in 1917, according to the commission, was $922,456,481 and in 1921 it was $2,196,505,738. The assessed value of property for county taxation in 1917 was $922,456,481 and in 1921 was $1,527,406,272 intangibles and a number of other forms or property not being taxed for county purposes.

SALE OF TOBACCO GRATIFYING TO POOL MEN.

The reported sale, at a satisfactory price, of a large quantity of pledged tobacco to manufacturers cannot fail to be gratifying to those growers in Bourbon county who have joined the pool. The Co-operative Burley Association has in a short time demonstrated that it can market tobacco, which was its announced intention.

Much has been accomplished. To take up, organize, finance and put into operation within a few months a corporation with fifty thousand stockholders, which will do a yearly business of thirty or forty millions, is a remarkable achievement. The receipt of tobacco has gone on without a hitch, redrying has been commenced, the grading has been careful, and, on the whole, satisfactorily done, and the cash advances have been prompt. And already the manufacturers have recognized the economic value of the plan and have purchased some of the crop.

The new Burley movement has been characterized by reasonableness. The leaders and the farmers themselves have gone on the assumption that the grower and the manufacturer have each their legitimate sphere, and that they can work in harmony together. It is to be doubted that the auction sales system was advantageous to either, and time is more likely than not to demonstrate that all parties will be better satisfied with the new deal.

You have noticed, of course, that an optimist usually takes his meals at a place where there is a good cook.

Save the bird in hand— The others may be hard to catch

With enough money, enough time and enough luck, a man may get back the health he has lost—or part of it.

It takes patience, too.

And then there may be no success, or only a little.

It's better to save what you have than hunt for what you've lost—as the most successful health-restorers will tell you.

Much of the loss of health is due to faulty, careless diet. Wrong meals at all times and right meals at wrong times load the long-suffering digestive organs with elements of destruction, or starve the tissues and glands of needed elements.

Grape-Nuts is a delicious cereal food which has the qualities of scientific nutrition. It supplies the full richness of those splendid food grains, wheat and malted barley, together with the vital mineral elements, so often lacking from foods. Served with cream or good milk, Grape-Nuts gives full nourishment without over-loading the stomach.

A splendid thought for breakfast or lunch, for those who would keep health—

"WHERE THE OLD TRAIL GOES GOES DOWN THROUGH THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY"

"The Wilderness Road to Kentucky," by William Allen Pusey, has just been published by George H. Doran Company. This book with various maps and illustrations deals with the early trials of our pioneer days. Dr. Pusey has been able with the assistance of diaries and books of other days to bring together all the data that explains and locates the Wilderness trail.

Dr. Pusey explains the use that Daniel Boone made of this winding road and the important part it played in the lives of the early settlers who led their families and household goods over the hills to "Caintuck." All the old landmarks, the stones that mark the fall of the pioneer before the onslaught of the Indian, come in for detailed comment in this complete treatment of the highway that fed the settlers of Kentucky.

There are some charming pictures of the Cumberland Mountains in the book which offer an invitation for the motorist who is weary of well-worn State highways. Dr. Pusey seems to feel that with the advent of the motor, the Wilderness Road will come to mean as much in the pleasure of people's lives as in the earlier days it formed the main route of civilization westward. There is beauty and loveliness in this old trail and it will delight the jaded motorist in search of new country.

MILLERSBURG COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

—One hundred and fifty new books from the Kentucky Library Commission at Frankfort, have just been received and are ready for use. These books are open to the public for reading.

—The following were visitors at the Wednesday morning Chapel exercises: Mesdames M. C. Grimes, G. W. Judy, Ed. Hill, Carl Henson, Mrs. Henson, Jas. Burroughs, Mollie Burroughs, Tom Dwelly, J. W. Lancaster, Edgar Hurst, Tom Stone, Sherman Mitchell, Misses Nannie Burroughs, Edna Clarke, Lillian Bookin, Little Misses Christine Lancaster and Elizabeth Hill, Master James Stone, and Messrs. M. C. Grimes and Thomas Stone. Under the direction of Miss Nannie D. Clarke, the First Grade gave a most interesting program, thus reviving the grade chapel exercises that were so interesting last year. Demonstration work in reading and penmanship proved beyond a doubt that "little folks" can accomplish much under an efficient teacher. "Will You Be My Valentine" was one entertaining feature wherein the little lads and lassies appeared in most attractive costume, while the cherry tree was actually cut down by a representative little George Washington. Minor parts on the program were well rendered. Altogether it was most creditable to both teacher and pupils, notwithstanding the fact that chicken pox and bad colds have but recently kept many of the children out of school.

—The basket ball game between the first team of Carlisle High and the first girls' team of Millersburg High, and the second boys' team of Carlisle High against Millersburg High's second team resulted in a score of 32 to 4 in favor of Millersburg girls' team and 22 to 11 in favor of Carlisle High. Two of Millersburg's best players on second boys' team, Price and Hickman were unable to play.
